The New House of Representatives.

All the elections for Congress are now over, and the Democrats will have a majority of about eighty in round numbers in the next House of Representatives, including the few who are designated as Liberals. If the majority was but twenty-five, it would be more efficient for practical legislation; for experience has shown that large majorities are usually loose in discipline and difficult to hold in hand. Paradoxical as it may seem, the very consciousness of superior strength is an element of weakness, since individual responsibility is less fixed, and each member is apt to excuse his own laxity by assumed confidence in the better fidelity of his associates.

A great opportunity is offered to this Democratic majority to render a weighty public service by presenting fairly and frankly to the country those questions of administrative reform which the Republicans have contrived to evade and to cover up under false pretexts and fabricated issues, as was lately seen in Ohio and other States. The first step toward any real relief from the present suffering, is to cut down the public expenditures to the lowest possible point and bring back the Government to simple and honest ways.

Extravagance has led to corruption in every branch of the public service. The great Rings which under Grant have become the controlling power in the Government, which buy legislation, own Senators, Representatives, members of the Cabinet, President's secretaries, brothers and brothers-in-law, accounting officers of the Treasury, and all the machinery of the executive departments, are the outgrowth of a corrupt system supported by excessive taxation. For the people have to make good all the plunder of the Treasury which these Rings divide, and to maintain in state the official instruments through whom the thieving is carried on, and without whose aid it would be wholly impossible.

Take the latest exposure of the Whiskey Ring, and it is found that its ramifications extended all through the White House, including in one or another form the President, his brother, his brother-in-law, his two secretaries, the Internal Revenue Bureau at Washington, its supervisors, agents, collectors, deputies and gaugers in several of the great cities, and the most trusted officers of the Treasury even in Mr. Bristow's own office. So perfect was this organization, that any order affecting the Ring was telegraphed from Washington before it could be even recorded, and that Mr. Bristow was finally compelled to act outside of the department in prosecuting his investigations. What is true of the Whiskey Ring is equally true of the Indian Ring, the Postoffice Ring, the Navy Ring, the Army Ring, and the other mighty combinations all organized for plunder. While acting in separate spheres, they unite compactly in support of each other when either is assailed. They keep agents at Washington on large salaries, with liberal margins for conquering the prejudices of opponents, who understand one another, and on occasion march together like regulars of the same army. It is estimated that at least one hundred millions of the revenue, and more than sixty millions of the appropriations, are stolen every year and distributed among these various Rings, while a great fund is set apart to keep up the Republican organization and continue this Ring rule.

We have heretofore demonstrated by comparison of expenditures in two periods of peace, covering six years of Grantism and six years preceding the rebellion, and allowing for the intermediate growth of the country, that it is easily practicable to cut down the army, navy, Indians, and miscellaneous items fifty-eight millions of dollars per annum. The public service will really be purified and strengthened by that retrenchment, instead of being weakened.

The favored classes of the army and navy, who are living in luxury, while hundreds of thousands of meritorious people are nearly starving, have large connections and influence in both parties, which will be utilized against reform. All the great contractors and furnishers of every description, with their banking alliances, will muster in force to oppose a change. So will the railroad and other corporations join their forces to this formidable array of strength. This opposition must not be underrated, for it is powerful, trained, rich, insidious, and accustomed to succeed. Great efforts will be made by social appliances to win over the Southern members especially. How this may be done is illustrated by the recent case of Charles J. Faulkner, member elect from West Virginia, whose vanity was captured by Delano in offering him a seat on the Indian Commission, and who thus became his principal whitewasher.

In spite of all these difficulties and others that are certain to be interposed, the majority of the house are for reform and economy, and we have faith that they will justify the confidence of their constituents and meet the expectations of the country. A failure in this respect would be followed by an inglorious and overwhelming punishment. It is a chance such as rarely comes to a party; for, besides being right, it is expedient. If this issue is made squarely, with an aggressive campaign of investigation from the start which shall neither give nor take quarter, the Democracy, with a decent candidate, may fairly hope to elect the next President. But if they halt, or quibble, or dodge, or go half forward only to fall back, they had better not begin at all, but throw up the political sponge at the beginning. —N. Y. Sun.

HUSBAND.—The English term "husband" is derived from the Anglo-Saxon words hus and bond, which signify "the bond of the house;" and it was anciently spelt house-bond, and continued to be so spelt in some editions of the English Bible after the introduction of the art of printing. A husband, then, is a house-bond—the bond of a house—that which engirdles the family into the union of strength, and the oneness of love. Wife and children, and "strangers within the gates"—all their interest and all their happiness—are encircled in the house-bond's embrace, the objects of his protection and of his care. What a fine picture is this of a husband's duty, and a family's privilege!

The Oldest Living Man.

[From the Chicago Inter-Ocean.]

MILAN, Tenn.—You recently published an account of a revolutionary soldier 114 years old, which induces me to write to you the following account of old Fortune Snow, who is 126 years of age. I visited him on the 9th of July, 1862, and learned from him his story. When I, in company with a friend, approached the house, a Fifteenth amendment, 62 years old, came out and said his "grand-pap" was in the house. Snow soon made his appearance, tripping down the steps as nimbly as a boy, without even a stick. He said he was born in Georgetown, S. C., and was 24 years old when the Revolutionary war began. He was married at 20, and became the father of thirteen children, the youngest of whom, a daughter 53 years of age, died two years ago. He belonged to Captain Snow, who served under General Marion. Old Fortune served with his master through the war, and in nearly every battle shouldered his gun and went in front, yet he has never received a pension. If the "government" loved the negro as well as it loves its vote, the old man would be cared for.

He moved from South Carolina to near Mobile, and lived there about five years. At the death of Captain Snow, he gave a Mr. Chapman—his son-in-law—$500 to support old Fortune the balance of his days. This man Chapman lived forty-seven years, and died, leaving the old negro still hale and hearty. Snow subsequently moved to Gibson county, Tenn., and settled near Pickneyville, about six miles west of Milan.

On examination with the opthamoscope, I found his eyes perfect in all their parts. The otoscope revealed a healthy condition of the organs of hearing. He told me he went totally blind at the age of 90, and remained so for about two years. His hair, white as wool, all came out. Subsequently his sight returned, and a new growth of hair made its appearance, which is now about half gray. He never suffers toothache, not having an unsound tooth in his mouth—nor any other kind. He enjoys good health, never wore spectacles, nor took a dose of medicine from a doctor. I opened his Bible at the eighth chapter of the Book of Revelations, which he read loudly and distinctly, without glasses. He says he loves to fish and hunt, and can shoot birds and fishes without the aid of glasses. He is very pious and believes strongly in the "Good God," as he calls him, who, he says, took him safe through the Revolutionary war. He reads his Bible and prays a great deal. He has been strongly urged to go to the Centennial, but has refused all solicitations, and says if the folks "want to see him let 'em come."

This venerable person recently emigrated to Mississippi with a large body of negroes who took the train at Humboldt, where hundreds of citizens visited him to see the oldest man living. Many will probably doubt this statement; but a conversation with him would convince any one of its correctness, besides, there are hundreds of responsible persons who would corroborate what I have given above.

A. A. DAVIDSON.

COUNTY JUDGES ELECT.—Returns of the late judicial election received at the office of the Secretary of State show that the following County Judges were elected: Alameda, S. G. Nye; Amador, T. M. Pawling; Butte, Wm. S. Safford; Calaveras, Ira H. Reed; Colusa, L. W. Robinson; Contra Costa, T. A. Brown; Del Norte, W. A. Hamilton; Eldorado, Charles F. Erwin; Fresno, Gillum Bailey; Humboldt, C. THE REALITIES OF LIFE.—There is routine work to life, and every man goes through it, but not all in the same way. To some it is a drudgery, to some pain, to some art, to some pleasure, but to all life. If a man will not work neither shall he eat, and the work men do is necessarily routine; the same want, the same demands, similar duties, meet us every day. There arise endless details and questions of ways and means, but the one thing, life, by duty and by work, is before us! But what wisdom, what grace, we require to meet and fulfil it! How often we are vexed and troubled by it! We are like mariners in an archipelago; the channel is bordered on either side by rocks, and he is a skillful pilot who steers safely through them. There is one thing, however, that better than all things helps a man—it is cheerfulness. The sun rises every morning in the heavens, and although mists and clouds sometimes cover it, it is there. So a man's disposition makes or mars his prospect. There is no healthier, no more hopeful light that a man can throw on his pathway than cheerfulness.

THE NEXT CONGRESS.—In the forty-fourth Congress there will be 292 members of the House, of which 165 are Democrats, 6 independents and 103 Republicans, with 17 vacancies to be filled during 1875. It is an impossibility therefore to change the vote of this branch of the national Legislature so as to destroy the Democratic majority. The Territorial delegates stand four Democrats and four Republicans. The Senate is composed of 46 Republicans, 28 Democrats and one Independent, (Newton Booth), with no election to take place before 1877. On joint ballot, conceding that the Republicans gain five representatives and all the Independents vote with them, the result would be 172 Democrats and 166 Republicans. Congress as at present constituted will count the electoral vote for President in 1876.

The Government Taxation.

It is generally supposed that the heavy taxation of the General Government is due to the war debt. This is not true, although that debt is a heavier charge than it would have been if the taxes paid by the people had been used for its payment.

The Government paid out in the fiscal year ending March, 1874, more than	$285,000,000
Of this sum there was paid for interest on war debt and pensions	136,000,000
For other expenses more than	149,000,000

It should have been reduced at least $500,000,000; or, we should have paid off about one-quarter of our national debt. This would have cut down the interest against us about $30,000,000 annually, a sum equal to the whole cost of government before 1840. But this by no means shows the full gain we should have made. This reduction of debt would have given us such credit in the markets of the world that we could have reduced the interest upon the balance of our indebtedness.

Now I ask you to see how liberally I have dealt with the Administration in saying that this sum should be paid and the interest account thus diminished:

The average receipts of the Government for six years, ending June 30th, 1874, were	$295,000,000
Deduct interest on war debt and pensions	155,000,000
	$140,000,000
Deduct what should have been paid on debt	65,000,000
If the $65,000,000 had been applied annually for the past ten years it would have paid off $500,000,000 and the interest besides, leaving for support of Government each year	$75,000,000 which is more than was spent by any Administration before the late war, or more than the cost of government during the Mexican war, when we conquered that country.

Last year our navy cost $30,000,000, although our carrying trade is destroyed. It cost but $12,000,000 when it protected American shipping on every ocean. If this policy of economy and payment of debts had been pursued, if the example of the General Government to the States had been on the side of retrenchment and reform, does anyone think our country would have been in its present condition? Would there now be a contest about our currency?—From a Recent Speech by Hon. Horatio Seymour.

A NOVEL RACE.—Plainsmen will be surprised to hear that there is something in the world that can run faster than a jack-rabbit. As a passenger-train on the Union Pacific, heading east, was rattling along over the Laramie Plains the other night, the engineer, Al Johnson, looking from the cab down along the gleaming rails, espied a hugh jack-rabbit bounding over the ties about thirty feet ahead of the cow-catcher. The engineer put on more steam, and the ponderous locomotive shot ahead like an arrow, but the rabbit pricked up his ears and struck out at the rate of twenty feet a jump. Johnson's pride was touched. His locomotive is one of the biggest and swiftest on the line, and he was afraid if he let that jackhare outrun him the boys would find it out, and he would be forever disgraced. So he turned on more steam and the engine made a bound under the cloud of smoke which belched from the smokestack, and the telegraph-poles danced past wildly, but jack let out another section of his legs and kept right along down the level grade just out of reach of the cow-catcher. For five miles and a quarter the locomotive and rabbit kept up this speed, when the latter began to weaken. Johnson, reining in his iron-horse, went out on the pilot, and leaning forward, reached out and picked up the rabbit as the engine jolted along slowly.—Denver (Col.) News.

HOW TO MAKE CHILDREN LOVELY. There is just one way, and that is to surround them by day and my night with an atmosphere of love. Restraint and reproof may be mingled with the love, but love must be a constant element. "I found my little girl was growing unamiable and plain," said a mother to us the other day, "and reflecting on this sadly, I could but accuse myself as the cause thereof. So I changed my management and improved every opportunity to praise and encourage her, to assure her of my unbounded affection for her and my earnest desire that she should grow up to a lovely and harmonious womanhood. As a rose opens to the sunshine, so the child's heart opened in the warmth of the constant affection and caresses I showered upon her; her peevishness passed away, her face grew beautiful, and now one look from me brings her to my side, obedient to my will, and happiest when she is nearest me." Is there not in this a lesson for all parents? Not all the plowing or weeding or cultivation of every sort we can give our growing crops, will do for them what the steady shining of the sun can effect. Love is the sunshine of the family; without it not character, or morality, or virtue can be brought to perfection.

NOT DAMAGED BY RECENT STORMS. Bayard stands! exclaims the Cincinnati Commercial. He is the most promising figure untouched by the storm. He has real integrity, and his financial principles are sound. The fact that he is of a famous family may not harm him. His father and grandfather were honorable men; and the circumstance could hardly be regarded in a Presidential canvass as an objection. Then Bayard has the advantage of living in a small State. He will not be helped by a large home vote in the Convention. He has not been involved in controversies that have raised up enemies. Certainly his chances as a candidate seem fair.

THE SAN FRANCISCO NARROW-GAUGE.—The Bulletin states that soon after New Years, work will be commenced on the narrow-gauge railroad from that place to Santa Cruz. One section of the road has already been located and the engineers will soon be in the field to locate the section between San Francisco and Half Moon Bay. At Santa Cruz the road will join with the narrow-gauge running South to Pajaro, and by building a section of about twenty miles will connect with the Monterey narrow-gauge road, which will give a through line from San Francisco to Monterey. Not an unimportant feeder of this new company will the Felton Flume and Railroad be.

An Old Prophecy.

One of our New England exchanges has come across an old almanac, dated 1755, edited by Dr. Nathaniel Ames, who lived in Dedham, Mass., published in Boston, and in one of its articles Dr. Ames made use of these prophetic words:

"There lie buried in all this vast region materials for the art and ingenuity of man to work upon—treasures of immense worth, concealed from the poor, ignorant, aboriginal natives. The curious have observed that the progress of human literature, like the sun, is from the east to the west; thus it has traveled through Asia and Europe, and now has arrived at the eastern shore of America. As the celestial light of the gospel was directed here by the finger of God, it will doubtless drive the long, long night of heathenish darkness from America. So arts and science will change the face of nature in their tour from hence over the Appalachian Mountains to the western ocean; and as they march through the vast desert, the residence of wild beasts will be broken up and their obscene howl cease forever, instead of which the stones and trees will dance together at the music of Orpheus, the rocks will disclose their hidden gems, and the inestimable treasures of gold and silver be broken. Huge mountains of ore will be discovered and vast stores reserved for future generations. This metal, more useful than gold and silver, will employ millions of hands, not only to form the martial sword and peaceful share alternately, but an infinity of utensils, improved in the exercise of art and handicraft among men. Nature, through all her works has stamped authority on this law, namely, 'that all fit matter shall be improved to its best purposes.' Shall not, then, those vast quarries that teem with mechanic stones—those for structure be piled into great cities, and those for sculpture into statues to perpetuate the honor of renowned heroes, even those who shall now save their country? Oh! ye unborn inhabitants of America, should this page escape its destined conflagration at the year's end, and those alphabetical letters remain legible, when your eyes behold the sun after he has rolled the seasons round for a century to come, you will know that in Anno Domini, 1755, we dreamed of your times!"

Extravagance in Boston.

A correspondent of the Chicago Journal writes: "I don't know how it is in Chicago, but here in Boston personal expenses, especially among certain classes, are equal to anything witnessed during the most profitable times of the late war. The dressmakers and milliners are coining money; coin is the word, and the leading dry-goods stores were never selling more expensive goods than now. It is enough to make a man of moderate ways go crazy to see how recklessly the women buy silks and things, and I know that rich men see visions of bankruptcy as they are called upon to settle the bills of their wives and daughters. The fashionable modistes are absolutely overrun with work; cheap cloths are almost unknown; a black silk dress now costs fully the retail price of fifteen barrels of flour, with all the necessary trimmings, and women whose husbands earn no more than $1,200 a year are wearing such dresses, but have to starve their table at home to do it. And then the bonnets or hats. Every fashionable milliner calculates to double her money on the material she puts into a hat, besides charging a round sum for the work. So that when a customer wants to purchase a decent sort of a hat she has to pay at least $25 for it. Shop-girls, school-girls and seamstresses there are who wear such expensive hats, and where they get the money to pay for them is a mystery to many people. Jordan, Marsh & Co., Chandler & Co., Hay, Spalding & Wales, Hovey & Co. and other leading dry-goods dealers say they have sold more fine goods this season than ever before, and that their sales this year will be a third larger than last year. It is an anomaly in the economy of trade that the duller the times the more extravagance in personal habits, particularly in dress. This extravagance seems to pervade the middling class more than any other class. No doubt the enterprising dealers have much to do with this species of extravagance, on account of the character of their advertisements, which also shows that they who by trade would thrive must advertise."

DEBTS.—Debts are stern realities and often darkly shadow existence. Through the warp of life's silvery fabric they are interwoven as a black woof unwound from the shuttle of pride, extravagance, and want of judgment, and even principle. It is more than doubtful if any one ever ought to go into debt. Each can and ought to earn enough for all necessities. Unnecessary and luxurious wants may be labored for, but should never be obtained through debt. When a human being is helpless and dependent, charity should be extended, and it should be considered no dishonor to receive it. The whole ground is covered by the Bible injunction: "Owe no man anything but to love one another"—freedom from indebtedness and abounding in charity. Debt discounts the future, wastes in the present, and pays a high premium while still carrying the risk. Its machinery adds a new department to labor, with no net advantage. Evils and evils only follow in its train. The world would be the better off were it wiped from existence.

THE POPULATION OF INDIA.—The Government of India has now published the census of the entire Empire, taken in 1871-72. The census was taken with extreme care, the officials being aided heartily by the enumerators, and it shows that the entire population of British India is 190,553,048, living on an area of 904,049 square miles; while the population of India, including native States, is 238,830,008 and the area 1,450,744. That is, India has nearly seven times the population of France and seven times her area, which in Europe is 204,000 square miles. In British India there are 140,500,000 of Hindoos, 40,750,000 of Mohammedans, and 9,250,000 of others, mostly Buddhists and Jains, the number of British born inhabitants exclusive of the army, being throughout the Empire only 59,000—less than the population of a single large town.

NATIONAL RAILROAD CONVENTION. About a thousand delegates are now in session at the St. Louis Southern Transcontinental Railroad Convention. This convention is supposed to be in the interest of the railroad magnate Scott, and its object to forward the construction of the Southern Pacific Railroad.

ATLANTIC CABLE DISPATCHES.—Mr. Gamble, Superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph Company on this coast has given notice that hereafter the rate on Atlantic Cable messages to the United Kingdom and France will be as follows: From British Columbia, $1 35 per word. from all other offices on the Pacific Coast, $1 20 per word. The increased tariff affects the Atlantic States also.

THE STATE PRINTING.—Frank Thompson, Superintendent of the State Printing office, has appointed Samuel Pope, formerly foreman of the Sacramento Union, but latterly news editor of the San Francisco Chronicle, foreman; O. H. Tubbs, recently foreman of Crocker & Co.'s job office, Sacramento, is to be assistant foreman, and George L. Suydam, a job printer of much experience, is to be foreman of the job office.

ASKED FOR.—The following are among the appropriations asked for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1877, in the reports of the Chief of Engineers of California: San Francisco harbor—for Fort Point, $60,000; for Lime Point, $60,000; for San Diego, $50,000; Fort Canby, Columbia river, $15,000; for improvements of Oakland harbor, $250,000; improvement of Wilmington breakwater, $100,000; Sacramento and Feather rivers, $200,000; upper Willamette (Oregon), $50,000.

MARK TWAIN'S SKETCHES, NEW AND OLD.—This popular work, now first published in complete form, is out and before the public for sale. The volume contains between 300 and 400 quarto pages and about 150 illustrations. Mark Twain's reputation as a humorist is world wide, and works from his prolific pen are sought after with avidity. The present work is sold only by subscription. Mr. Morton Humphrey is now canvassing Yolo County for names, and all who desire to obtain the "Sketches" can be supplied.

SEVERE EARTHQUAKE.—The damage reported shows that the earthquake of last week must have been very severe in Southern California and Arizona. It was quite disastrous in its effects between San Diego and Yuma. The adobe stage station and corral at Indian Wells were thrown down. At New River a portion of the buildings fell down, and at Gardner's portions of the buildings were shaken down. The heaviest shock was about 2:30 P.M., but lighter ones continued all night at intervals until 9 o'clock the following morning.

FITZGERALD'S LIBEL SUIT.—Dr. O. P. Fitzgerald has brought suit against C. A. Klose for $20,000 damages for defamation of character. The Chronicle is released from prosecution, Klose having been shown to be the author of the libelous article. In a card recently published the Dr. says: it seems due to myself and my friends to say, now, that the books of the Bank of California show no check or draft for $3,000 from Wilson, Hinkle & Co. was ever deposited, presented or cashed by me at that bank, as charged by Mr. Klose. A full transcript of my account with the Bank of California may be seen at the bank by all interested parties."

THE LATE STORM.—The rainfall in some portions of the State has been unusually heavy and in some localities has done an immense amount of damage. The town of Hollister was inundated on the 18th by the overflow of Bear Creek, and the country for miles was under water. The railroad was damaged and impassable. Near San Felipe over 1500 head of sheep were destroyed and much damage done by bridges being carried away, etc. Eight inches of rain had fallen in a short time, while twenty miles south there was scarcely enough to lay the dust, and again seventy miles south the rains were heavy. At Sonora during the 17th, 18th and 19th about twelve inches of rain fell. Reservoirs were carried away, bridges and houses floated off, and several Chinamen drowned. Immense damage must have resulted from such an unprecedented rainfall in so short a time. At Stockton the water has been higher than before since 1862, and several bridges were carried away. In the extreme northern part of the State and other mountainous regions the rainfall has been still greater—as high as sixteen or eighteen inches being reported. At Sacramento the fall has been lighter, reaching only about six inches, and this is nearly double the amount of the fall in Woodland. While we have had enough for all practical purposes, we hear no complaint of damage or of too much rain. The ground is in good condition for plowing, which the farmers are taking advantage of; the early sown and volunteer wheat is looking finely, the grass grows fast and will soon make good feed for stock; and in fact, so far as this county is concerned, everything is as lovely as could be desired.

Death of Vice-President Wilson.

Vice-President Wilson died at Washington on Monday last of apoplexy. He had been quite ill for several weeks and was thought to be improving up to a short time before his death. The following order announcing the death of the Vice-President was issued by the President:

EXECUTIVE MANSION, Nov. 22d, 1875.

It is with profound sorrow that the President has to announce to the people of the United States the death of Vice President Wilson, who died in the Capitol of the Nation this morning. His eminent station, his high character, his long career in the service of his State and of the United States, his devotion to the cause of freedom, and the ability brought to the discharge of his every duty, stand conspicuous, and are idelibly impressed on the hearts and the affections of the American people. In testimony of respect for the distinguished citizen and faithful public servant, the various departments of the Government will be closed on the day of his funeral, and the Executive Mansion and all the Executive Departments in Washington will be draped with the badge of mourning for thirty days. The Secretaries of War and Navy will issue orders that appropriate military and naval honors be rendered to the memory of one whose virtues and services will be long borne in recollection by a grateful nation. U. S. GRANT.

By the President: Hamilton Fish, Secretary of State.

The body has been embalmed and lies in state on a cataflaque in the Vice-President's Room in the National Capitol, dressed in a suit of black broadcloth. The funeral will take place in Washington on Saturday, after which the body will be taken to Massachusetts for burial by the Governor and Staff of that State. Flags are at half-mast here and throughout the country.

The President pro tem. of the Senate, O. M. Ferry, of Michigan, will succeed Mr. Wilson as Vice-President of the United States.

A Successful Railway.

In an article on the Railroads of the Great West in an Omaha (Neb.) daily paper, we find the article we copy below. Coming as it does from a paper published at Omaha, where, as it is well known, not the most friendly feelings are exhibited towards an enterprise not controlled by Omaha, its testimony is most valuable. We quote as follows:

"In these days of ease and luxury it is quite important that the traveler should know, when going across a country where there are so many competing lines as between Omaha and Chicago, on which road safety and comfort is most considered. Such a road is the Chicago and North-Western. The present controlling stock owners of this road are active, energetic and successful railroad men, who will never rest easy while any competing line can eclipse them in any respect. They are laying down steel rails, and putting on day and night coaches, and sleepers that outshine anything in the West, and their road bed is the oldest, best located, and safest of any road out of Omaha. The country through which this road passes is unsurpassed for beautiful scenery. First winding under the bluffs of the Missouri, then up the beautiful valley of the Boyer river through Ceder Rapids, the most delightful city in Iowa. Across the clear waters of the Mississippi at Clinton, thence over the highly cultivated prairies to Chicago. The conductors and employees on these trains are noted for their civility, and are gentlemen with whom it is a pleasure to do business, who by their courteous manners and charming affabilities are fast making the Chicago and North-Western the most popular line between Omaha and Chicago."

The trains that run over this line are made of elegant new Pullman Palace Drawing Room and Sleeping Coaches, built expressly for this line, luxurious, well lighted and well ventilated Day Coaches, and pleasant lounging and smoking cars; all built by this company in their own shops. The cars are all equipped with the celebrated Miller Safety Platform, and Patent Buffers and Couplings, Westinghouse Safety Air Brakes, and every other appliance that has been devised for the safety of passenger trains. All trains are run by telegraph.

In a word, this great California line has the best and smoothest track, and the most elegant and comfortable equipment of any road in the West, and has no competitor in the country. It is eminently the favorite route with Chicagoans traveling East, and is acknowledged by the traveling public to be the popular line from all points in Western Iowa, Nebraska, Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, Montana, Idaho, Nevada, California, and the Pacific Slope.

NEW PATENTS.—Through dispatches to Dewey & Co., Patent Agents, S. F., we receive the following advance list of U. S. Patents granted to Pacific Coast inventors, viz: S. Bendit, S. F., sofa bedstead; I. B. Dillon, Visalia, Cal., sheep scratch box; H. G. Livermore, S. F., ore roasting furnace; W. H. Masterman, San Leandro, Cal., wheel hub; W. C. Nelson, Sacramento, Cal., windmill; A. Ryder, Oakland, Cal., coupling for train telegraphs; A. Smith and J. S. Roy, Sheridan, Nevada, washing machine; O. Taber, Santa Clara, Cal., horse hay fork; J. D. Culp, San Felipe, Cal., curing tobacco and cigar mold.

CRAWFISHING.—For a despicable sample of this commodity, see the last issue of the Yolo Mail—compare its utterances with those of the same paper while it was the proud organ of the so-called Independent party. The latter is dead, but the Republican party, strangely enough, is metamorphosed into a good, pure, patriotic party, with a pure and righteous President at its head. How strangely things political do turn out, don't they?

NEW DAILY PAPER.—It is said that Mr. Lock, of the Toledo, O., Blade, (Petroleum V. Nasby), and Col. John McComb, for a long time connected with the Alta California, are about to start another daily paper in San Francisco.

DISCONTINUED.—Oat Valley postoffice, in this county, has been discontinued. It has been virtually dead for several months.

DURANG'S RHEUMATIC REMEDY.—Presidential Mansion, Washington, D. C., April 23, 1875, Messrs. Helphenstine & Bentley—Gents: For the past seven years my wife has been a great sufferer from rheumatism, which at times assumed a very malignant form, and for days and nights deprived her of rest. Several months ago our attention was called to DURANG'S RHEUMATIC REMEDY, and after giving it a trial, using three bottles in all, she was freed from pain and a permanent cure effected. I am glad to be able to make the above statement in reference to your wonderful remedy, three bottles of which will, in my opinion, cure any case of rheumatism on the face of the earth. Town and County Matters

To Be Despised.

We have ever looked with pride and favor upon temperance men, believing them to be promoters of good wherever their influence is felt. Something comes to our ear, as having recently occured in the Lodge of Good Templars in this city, however, that rather throws a wet blanket upon our warm sympathies heretofore felt for them. The facts are substantially these: A very respectable young man, who is highly regarded as a favorite in good society here, was recently prevailed upon to give his name in as an applicant for membership to this order. The balloting took place in due form, when to the astonishment of the better element in the Lodge it was discovered that he had been blackballed. When the matter came up for discussion two or three individuals arose and in open lodge directed a battery of vile and scandalous anathemas against the innocent and modest applicant, and said things of him which they can neither prove nor verify. These sayings leaked out, and the gentleman thus assailed was obliged, in defense of his character, to call the defamers to account. He met one of them in a hotel the day following, and upon being refused an explanation, had the satisfaction of dumping a thunder cloud over one of his eyes by an energetic stroke from the shoulder. It was a genuine row in which public sympathy is on one side—that of the gentleman whose character was defamed. We learn that the Lodge has taken the matter up again, calling those who put the blackballs in the box to a strict account. We can say from our own positive knowlege that the gentleman asking admission to their number is worthy of their esteem and confidence, and he was blackballed only through malicious envy. If the Lodge don't search this matter out and give it a clean sifting it deserves obloquy. It seems to have come to this: a gentleman of culture and refinement is brought under the fire of certain mischievous individuals who have no motive in making an attack on his character other than envy or jealousy, and on this account they determine to keep him out of the organization in which they seem to hold sway. We don't like rows, but if a man chastises another in defense of an unstained character and reputation, as in this instance, he becomes the champion of a good cause. It will take something more than blackballs from such persons to blacken the character of the gentleman in question. We hope the Lodge will sift the matter to the bottom and send some of this disturbing element adrift. Unless it does this the Lodge may suffer seriously.

CAUSE OF DEATH.—A post mortem examination of the body of Mrs. Sarah E. Andrews, wife of Geo. W. Andrews of this city, whose death was announced last week, made by Dr. Cluness of Sacramento, revealed the fact that she died of cancer of the pancreas, or sweetbread. Deceased suffered long and patiently, and it is a source of satisfaction to the family particularly, and to the community generally, by whom she was highly esteemed, to know the immediate cause of her lingering illness and death.

LITERARY SOCIETY.—This is a matter that has been talked of among the young folks for some time past, and the other evening an organization was effected and the following officers chosen: President, Chas. D. Beach; Vice-President, Miss Mollie Nelson; Secretary, Stephen Sill; Treasurer, Miss Lulu Dietz. The name adopted is the "Thespian Society." Meetings on Thursday evenings at Central Hall. We learn there are already some thirty members.

LARGE AREA.—W. J. Campbell, Esq., informs us that he and his two sons have eighteen hundred acres of summer-fallow and volunteer wheat that is up and looking splendid—the latter if anything the best. The season thus far has been unusually favorable—wet enough, mild and without frost, so that there is nothing to hinder rapid growth.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—This annual gathering is now in session. Professor Carr, State Superintendent elect, delivered an interesting lecture last evening. The exercises continue to-day, closing this evening.

THANKSGIVING GAME. — The base ball game of the season was played yesterday between the Silver Stars and a picked nine for a purse of $10, in which the Silver Stars won, the score standing 27 to 18.

R. R. MEETING.—The stockholders of the Woodland, Clear Lake and Humboldt Railroad Company will hold an adjourned meeting to take some definite action to-morrow.

FULL.—The Sacramento was so full the other day that its banks were overflowed. Cache Creek and Putah Creek have been but little affected thus far.

PEARS.—We notice in the garden of C. L. Beach, Esq., a tree bearing a second crop of pears.

How Patience Conquered.

The following communication shows that one may come off victorious and perseve an unruffled temper even under the most trying circumstances, if patience is allowed to govern. We think the writer is deserving of all praise, in that he possessed his soul in patience under such trying and aggravating circumstances; and also of a more euphonious signature to so well written an epistle:

CRAFT HOUSE, WOODLAND, Nov. 17th, 1875.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—The battle is won. The stoves are up. Fearful though the struggle, victory now perches on our banners. Yes sir, she sits enthroned, and as she thus sits the smoke of the not bloodless conflict slowly rises, and we survey the enemy, whom we met with fear and trembling at early morn, now divested of all her mind-troubling and soul-harrowing terrors, but not of glory. Far from the latter. One halo of light surrounds her, permeating every dark place of the scene of conflict, while we, though wounded and bleeding at every pore, sing those songs that spring forth spontaneously only from the happy heart. We feel not only happy tonight, but we feel like being poetic, we do, over this thing. We feel the poetic fire coursing through our veins and playing hide-and-seek around and over us generally, all because of victory. But, Mr. Editor, we'll step down and out—

> From pastures green where poets feed,
> And tell the facts that you may read,
> In that old way of homely prose—
> How we did meet that worst of foes
> The fitting up with pipes our stoves,
> And yet preserved our temper.

Fully and completely did we observe the words of the inspired writer, "Let patience have her perfect work." Carefully read we this sublime passage many times ere we began our work. 'Tis well that we did, or we should have fallen, like many others before us, into a whirlwind of storm and passion. Well did the Apostle know when he penned those words that they would be needed to guide and direct the race when setting up the stove and pipe of the nineteenth century. In no other department of life is there so much need of a full and complete application of this text as in the work we have just finished. We always admired brother Paul because of his sublime writings, but now we are fully prepared to love him. To him we owe this victory over a non-fitting stovepipe and ourself. Mark Twain once said: "Show me the man that can set up a stove without getting mad, and I'll show you a man totally devoid of all the essential elements of true manhood." We may not quote his words quite as correctly as we did our dear deceased friend's, spoken of above, but that's what he said in substance. If Mark be authority, my friend the apostle did greatly err; but if the latter was right, which I have fully proven to-day, the former is a false teacher. His writings led me many times before, when at stove fixing, to develop a manly spunk. Mark, we fear you are an infidel, or else you are painfully ignorant of the Scripture. Now, Marcus, we join issue with you; or, to use a more classical phrase, we lock horns. Here in us behold much excellence and all the manly virtues; cause, patience had her perfect work. There, however, was a hurculean task, and great is our wonder when we look over our wounded members—causualities of the day's conflict—some of which we now proceed to record: One black eye, caused by a falling joint of pipe; one ankle sprained, in bringing in the stove from the store room; one finger cut to the bone, when fitting the zinc to its place; skin knocked from certain tender parts of our person in twenty places, at least, to say nothing about a serious rent in our best and only pair of pants, so that we now lie in bed; but we draw a veil over the scene..... And now, sir Mark Twain, we were enabled to endure and go through all this and preserve that calmness and peace of mind which proves that we are thoroughly Christianized, and that you are a false philosopher, a false theorist, a false prophet, and an unsafe guide to follow in stove erecting. And let all others who would cast reproach on this delightful kind of work, by writing or talking, as you have done, cease their attempt to lead us into error—'cause 'twill be vain—we follow Paul in this thing, and "let patience have her perfect work."

FLUNKEY.

BASE BALL.—A match game of base ball was played last Saturday between the Silver Stars and Alerts, for a purse of $10 and the championship. The game was well played on both sides to the middle of the sixth inning, when it commenced to rain, and the Umpire called "game" and decided in favor of the Silver Stars. Following is the score:

CIRCULATION.—The Dixon Tribune, referring to the Winters Advocate's boasted circulation, says it strikes off a thousand copies and circulates eight hundred gratuitously. This is all very fine as long as money and credit hold out, but is it legitimate and on the square? Somebody has to pay for the whole edition. Who is it?

GILLMAN BROS. & Co.—This enterprising Sacramento firm realizes the importance of the Yolo trade to that city and keeps an advertisement in the DEMOCRAT setting forth what they can do for our people when they visit the city. See their new advertisement in this issue.

Letter from Winters.

[From Our Regular Correspondent.]

WINTERS, YOLO COUNTY, Nov. 23d, 1875.

AGRICULTURAL.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—There have been benign smiles and rejoicings among farmers hereabout during the past fortnight. With a sufficient quantity of rain to answer every demand for agricultural pursuits, and the weather having been all that could be desired, the earth is rapidly sending forth its vegetation, causing its surface to look as if covered by an extensive green carpet. So far the season is similar to last, which was one of the most prosperous years the farmers of the Sacramento Valley have ever had. Already in many places the grain is from four to six inches in height and presents a most beautiful sight.

STOCK CULTURE.

Owing to the heavy rain in June, feed for stock was almost destroyed; horses, cattle and a great number of sheep have been fed with straw, something very unusual in this county. Doubtless farmers have learned that a great saving of hay might be had by feeding their straw to the stock, instead of burning it, as has usually been the custom.

Since the commencement of the rains most of the sheep have been driven into the foothills for pasturage. These hills are literally covered with acorns, which are very fatal to sheep, and a good many have died from eating them. Acorns are not only injurious to sheep at the time they are eaten, but seem to create deformity and disease among the lambs of the ensuing spring.

As to hogs, it is hard to find a poor one; a glorious time they have had eating and wallowing over tons of grain that was blown out by the summer winds.

GRAIN IN OUR WAREHOUSE.

There is now about one hundred and forty thousand centals of grain in our warehouse—mostly wheat—and had as much more rain fallen as did, it in all probability would remain there for a while. In my opinion the first high water in Putah Creek will wipe the temporary railroad bridge out entirely. All the grain, with the exception of two lots, has been shipped from the yard, and a large quantity is daily being forwarded from the warehouse. The Berryessa grain has all been hauled, and right here I will add that some of those farmers make use of expletives in relation to the Putah Cañon grade, and declare they have been deceived in a shameful manner by our county guardians.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Forgetting the interest and high considerations of the public, the Railroad Company has completely obstructed Main street on the east to such an extent that it is impossible to cross the track. This is said to have been done to check the progress of the town on that side and drive it westward, where the Company has property for sale. Strange that the Company should bring reproach upon itself by yielding to temptations; but such is mankind.

Our school house is being rapidly built. It seems to be a very good and commodious building, but it reminds me of Arch Bradley's saying: "Do you see all these domains around here? they are all mine when they are paid for."

The Methodist Church will be finished about the 10th proximo. It is a building 30 by 60, with top of spire 80 feet from the ground. I believe Elder Russell is to fill the pulpit. We lack a Sanky (we have a Moody), or no doubt the feelings of sinners would deepen and we would have a widespread revival.

Very likely some trouble will occur relative to parties obstructing the channels of sloughs between Winters and Cottonwood. This seems to be indulged in by several different persons, and I shall not be surprised if it ends in the Supreme Court.

All sorts of games are played in this town with friendly overtures; still you are alarmed by circumstances which startle and mystify you, so that the timid and virtuous creep noiselessly out of sight.

Two Chinese who are living here now, will, if they remain with us, be legal voters next year.

The DEMOCRAT should have been at hand Friday evening, but did not arrive "on time," perhaps our loquacious "local" organ pounded it in the stomach to such an extent as to cause it to be behind time.

Respectfully Yours, ORLAND.

HARPER'S PUBLICATIONS.—We present to our readers the prospectuses of three standard periodicals—Harper's Monthly Magazine, Harper's Weekly, and Harper's Bazar. Those who have not yet made up the list of periodicals they intend to subscribe for the coming year will do well to put one or more of these down among the number. No one will regret it. For particulars read the advertisement.

THE LIBRARY ENTERTAINMENT last evening was a decided success. All who participated acted well their parts. The seats were all filled, and many were obliged to stand during the evening. The result will prove quite a benefit to the Library Association.

THE CONCERT advertised by Mrs. Marble is not yet positively announced but will probably take place on Tuesday or Wednesday evening of next week. Look out for posters. It will be a rare treat when it does come off.

MUSHROOMS.—The warm wet weather has had the effect to produce quite a good crop of this delicious spontaneous vegetable fungus growth, and many of our epicures are feasting upon them.

FIRST IN THE FIELD.—The White House is out this week with a new advertisement in which special inducements are offered for the holiday trade. Do not fail to call and examine for yourself.

MISS A. A. DELONG, Teacher.

LOW DOWN.—The new Winters' paper, printed one side in Sacramento and the other in San Francisco, devotes half a column to our benefit, but admits that it has to get down very low to do it. All right, my friend. What we said was true. As to our weekly supplement, it does not affect the regular sheet in the least. The Advocate denies our statement as to rates charged for advertising. Our rates have been to yearly advertisers during the last six years: For three months—¼ col., $8; ½ col., $15; full col., $25. Nearly every merchant in the county knows this to be true. The Advocate charges the same for four weeks. Every one knows that legal advertising comes under a very different scale. The people of Winters are our friends—we are theirs, at least we have tried to be—and we cannot see our friends imposed upon without warning them. We again advise them to beware. Every legitimate enterprise that is honorable should be encouraged, and will be by us, but transient, wild-cat speculations should be dealt with very cautiously.

MISREPRESENTATION.—Notwithstanding Judge Ramage's defeat, the Mail persists in misrepresenting him by stating that he has not attended to his duties properly during his term on account of sickness. This is not the case. He has on very few occasions during his six years as Judge of this District, failed to be at his post; and we doubt not has done as much work during his term as any District Judge in the State.

RAINFALL.—Up to the date of our last issue the total rainfall for the season, as indicated by the rain-gauge kept at Simpson's drug store, was 2.65 inches; since that time there has fallen 0.13 inches, making a total of 2.78 for the season.

A REASONABLE REQUEST FROM A CORPSE.—A remarkable escape from burial alive happened in the town of Bradford, New Hampshire, a few days since. The facts of the case are as follows: A lady in the above town had been sick for some time; and to all appearance had died, and arrangements were accordingly made for the funeral to take place the third day after her supposed decease. The preparations for burial has progressed so far that on the day of the funeral the lady was placed in a coffin, when it was observed that one of her eyes was partly opened. Nothing, however, was thought of it, as it was supposed to be the result of muscular contraction, and the arrangements for burial were all completed, when the supposed corpse astonished the attendants by asking to be placed on her side. The house of mourning was suddenly turned into one of joy, and at last accounts the lady was doing finely, with every prospect of a complete recovery.

MARRIED.

At the residence of the bride's father, on the 23d instant, by Rev. A. Fairbairn, George W. Greive to Miss Lena C. Hyde, all of Tremont, Solano County.

DIED.

At the residence of his brother, David Hayes, in Stanislaus County, November 18th, John Milton Hayes, a native of Kentucky, aged 28 years 9 months and 9 days.

A Fragrant Breath and Pearly Teeth

Are easily obtained by cleansing your teeth daily with that justly popular dentifrice, SOZODONT. Composed of rare antiseptic herbs, it imparts whiteness to the teeth, a delicious aroma to the breath, and preserves intact from youth to old age, the teeth. Acidity of the stomach will destroy the strongest teeth unless its effects are counteracted with SOZODONT, and this pure toothwash protects the dental surfaces by removing every impurity that adheres to them. Ask your druggist for SOZODONT.

The Yolo Democrat.

Friday, November 26th, 1875.

General Items.

Leap year, the Centennial Exposition and a Presidential election all occur in 1876.

The Palace Hotel, San Francisco, already has 539 guests recorded on its books.

The estimated cost of the tunnel under the channel from France to England is $30,000,000.

The height of man is equal to the measure of his extended arms from tip to tip of fingers.

In Missouri, returns from sixty counties give a majority of over 50,000 for the new Constitution.

Two hundred and sixty thousand dollars worth of matches are annually manufactured in San Francisco.

The steamer New World has been taken to San Francisco. Her return to the Vallejo route will please all.

The total amount to be raised by taxation in the City of New York for 1875 is $32,698,027,-86. The rate is $2.97 on $100.

Henry R. Mann, Treasurer of Saratoga county, New York, for the last fifteen years, has proved a defaulter; $140,000 is the amount stolen.

Out of ten thousand persons only one reaches his hundredth year, only one in five hundred his eightieth, and only one in one hundred his sixty-fifth.

The earnings of the Central Pacific for the first ten months of this year were $14,086,200, as against $11,770,700 in a corresponding period last year.

Brick Pomeroy publishes a statement denying that his paper has suspended, and proposes to prosecute for libel those who have misrepresented him.

A Walla Walla Sheriff beat four acres the other evening with a writ of attachment, which he levied on the stakes—$90—and walked off with the coin.

John F. Unlhorn intends to write a volume of about 200 pages, containing the biographies of all the State officers, and of the members of the Legislature.

Shipments of honey from San Diego this season amount to 1,500 cases of comb and 67,000 pounds of strained honey, and there are 1,000 cases more in store.

There are now used at the postoffice in Suisun not less than 8,000 three cent stamps every three months. While only four years ago there were about 3,000 used every quarter.

Commenting on the election, the New York Times says that it will not support Grant for a third term. The question is asked, "Why such a statement and at such a time?"

Chicago, the largest grain market in the world, handles 90,000,000 bushels annually, and has now in operation eighteen steam elevators, with a capacity of 15,550,000 bushels.

This year's crops in Russia were a failure. Never before, it is asserted, has the failure of harvesting been so general in that Empire, and there are serious apprehensions of a famine.

Fully 10,000 persons at Philadelphia, Nov. 21st, attended each of the two revival services held by Moody and Sankey. The streets in the vicinity were crowded, despite a drenching rain.

A medical practitioner proposes, as a method to ascertain death, to inject a drop of ammonia beneath the skin, when, if there be life, a red spot appears, but if death no effect is produced.

In one room of the schools of Fort Wayne there are three pairs of twins, and nearly of the same age. Each one resembles her sister so much that the teacher is puzzled to call them by their right names.

The cost of maintaining the California insane at the Stockton Asylum is forty-three cents per capita per diem, which is less than the cost of maintaining any other similar institution in the United States.

The amount of cash contributed in San Francisco for the relief of the Virginia City sufferers, amounts to $43,000, and the amount of supplies donated by individuals and firms, about $20,000; total $63,000.

Nearly 600,000 persons were employed during last year in and about the coal, fire clay, iron-stone and shale mines of Great Britain and Ireland, about four-fifths of whom were occupied under the ground.

The old bell which called together the Virginia Convention of 1775, in Richmond, when Patrick Henry uttered his stirring sentence, "Give me liberty or give me death," is still in use in Martinsville, in that State.

John Mackey, whose income from Consolidated Virginia is $850,000 per month, is a candidate for the Jones succession to the Senate from Nevada. Ten years ago he was a mining laborer in Virginia City where he now resides.

To know how to keep a tidy house and well aired apartments, to know how to select the best kinds of food, to know how to prepare them in the best manner—these are important, and every daughter should learn them before marriage.

Very good kindlings are made in Europe of corn cobs. They are first steeped in hot water containing two per cent saltpeter, and are saturated with 50 per cent of resinous matter. These lighters are sold at from $3 to $4 per thousand.

The ground on which the new Postoffice at New York stands cost $1,000,000, and the cost of the building has been $8,400,000, while the architect estimates that it will require $1,000,-000 more to complete the job; that is to say, $10,400,000 in all.

On the ranch of Moore Brothers, near Duncan's mill, Sonoma county, Messrs. Light & Co. have, with steel traps, within the last month caught nine bears. The bears are of the black and cinnamon species, and very troublesome, killing sheep, hogs, etc.

Jack Hulton, a noted shot at Titusville, Penn., recently shot a deer that weighed, after dressing, 159 pounds, which he strapped to his back, and with his gun, carried it the distance of nine miles, which was something of a feat, when it is known that he has but one arm.

The State Prison contains 1,070 prisoners. The Directors have leased to contractors the labor of 400 convicts at fifty cents a day. Omitting Sundays and holidays, they earn about $60,000 per annum. The expenses of maintaining the institution amounts to $160,000 a year—$100,000 in excess of the income.

It is claimed for the Dominion of Canada that it ranks third—certainly fourth—in importance among ship-owning countries of the world. Ship-building forms an important branch of Canadian industry. Four hundred and ninety-six new vessels, measuring 190,756 tons, were built during the year 1874.

Professor W. Frank Stewart states in the Carson Appeal, as a quietus of misapprehension, that the great cabinet of specimens, collected by himself and the State Mineralogist Whitehill for the Centennial was not destroyed by the Virginia City fire, but is safely housed, the whole ten tons of the same, in the railroad round houses in Carson City.

A big oyster crop is announce for the coming season; by many of the old oystermen the predictions are that it will exceed that of 1860, and already the bivalvular dainties are in a plump condition. The great plantation owners around New York and New Jersey and along Long Island Sound are expecting a yield of 2,000,000 bushels, and profits of from $400,000 to $500,-000.

The Los Angeles Herald says that at the present rate of increase it is estimated there will be in four years 1,000,000 stands of bees in Los Angeles, Santa Barbara and San Bernardino counties, which will produce annually 100,000,000 pounds of honey, worth $20,000,-000, which is more than the value of the sugar and molasses crop of Louisiana, Texas and Florida combined.

About two o'clock on Friday last four Chinamen attempted to cross from the Yolo to the Sacramento side at the point where the American empties into the Sacramento river. The current from the American caused the boat to capsize. Three of the Chinamen caught hold of the boat and held to it, but the fourth was never seen afterwards. Those that clung to the craft were rescued.

A resume of the operations of the government against the whisky ring at St. Louis shows that during the last three years about $3,000,000 has been stolen by the guilty parties. The property seized will bring $500,000, which, together with the forfeited bonds of distillers and gaugers, bring the Treasury Department about $1,530,000. Chicago and Milwaukee will realize like amounts, making the government $3,500,000 richer than it would be had there been no prosecutions. There will probably be 100 convictions in all.

SOME OF THE FINEST CABINET ORGANS

EVER BROUGHT TO THIS COAST.
NO MORE REEDY, HARSH TONES.

THE WARREN & CLOUGH COMBINATION ORGAN.

New and Wonderful Invention.

The newly invented SCRIBNER PATENT "QUALIFYING TUBES," (Secured by letters patent in the United States, England and Canada.) An invention having a MOST IMPORTANT BEARING on the future reputation of Reed Instruments. By means of which the quantity or VOLUME of tone is VERY LARGELY INCREASED, and the QUALITY of tone rendered equal to that of the best Pipe Organs of the same capacity—thus furnishing all the desirable characteristics of the large Church Pipe Organ, in a case the size of an ordinary Cabinet or Parlor Organ, and at the moderate price of Reed Organs. By means of this invention, an Organ containing two sets of reeds becomes equal in volume and power, and VASTLY SUPERIOR IN QUALITY AND BRILLIANCY OF TONE to an ordinary Reed Organ of six or eight sets of reeds. One of the crowning features of this invention is the peculiar facility with which it adapts the tone of the Instrument to ACCOMPANY THE VOICE IN SINGING, the effect upon both singer and listener being charming beyond description. This ingenious invention consists in the construction and application of tubes of wood or metal, placed so as to operate in connection with the reeds, each tube having an opening on the upper side at the rear end, through which the air, subsequently passing through the reed, enters, and through which the sound produced by the vibration of the reed escapes. The tubes inclosing the reeds of the treble are provided with adjustable valves or slides, over the mouth opening, by means of which the tubes may be tuned in unison with reeds, to produce a flute-like tone, such as found heretofore only in pipe Organs.

PROCLAMATION.

CHICAGO AND NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY.

THE POPULAR ROUTE OVERLAND.

Passengers for Chicago, Niagara Falls, Pittsburg, Philadelphia, Montreal, Quebec, New York, Boston, or any point East, should buy their

Transcontinental Tickets

VIA THE PIONEER ROUTE,

—THE—

THIS IS THE BEST ROUTE EAST.

Its Track is of STEEL RAILS, and on it has been made the FASTEST time that has ever been MADE in this country. By this route passengers for points east of Chicago have choice of the following lines from Chicago:

BY THE PITTSBURG, FORT WAYNE AND CHICAGO AND PENNSYLVANIA RAILWAYS.

3 THROUGH TRAINS DAILY, with Pullman Palace Cars through to Philadelphia and New York on each train.

1 THROUGH TRAIN, with Pullman Palace Cars to Baltimore and Washington.

BY THE LAKE SHORE AND MICHIGAN SOUTHERN RAILWAY AND CONNECTIONS (NEW YORK CENTRAL AND ERIE RAILROADS):

By THE MICHIGAN CENTRAL, GRAND TRUNK, GREAT WESTERN AND ERIE AND NEW YORK CENTRAL RAILWAYS:

3 THROUGH TRAINS, Pullman Palace Drawing Room and Sleeping Cars through to New York, to Niagara Falls, Buffalo, Rochester, or New York city.

BY BALTIMORE AND OHIO RAILROAD:

2 THROUGH TRAINS DAILY with Pullman Palace Cars for Newark, Zanesville, Wheeling, Washington and Baltimore without change.

This is the SHORTEST, BEST and only line running Pullman celebrated PALACE SLEEPING CARS AND COACHES, connecting with Union Pacific Railroad at OMAHA, and from the WEST, via Grand Junction, Marshall, Cedar Rapids, Clinton, Sterling and Dixon, for CHICAGO AND THE EAST.

This popular route is unsurpassed for Speed, Comfort and Safety. The smooth, well-ballasted and perfect track of steel rails, the celebrated Pullman Palace Sleeping Cars, the perfect Telegraph System of moving trains, the regularity with which they run, the admirable arrangement for running through cars to Chicago from all points West, secure to passengers all the comforts in modern Railway traveling. No changes of Cars and no tedious delays at Ferries.

TOOK THE MEDAL

—AT THE—

STATE FAIR

WITH FOUR COMPETITORS.

SACRAMENTO, (Cal.), Sept. 14, '75.

This is to certify that the MATHUSHEK PIANOS we are using, and purchased of Mr. COOPER, give good satisfaction, standing in tune and wearing remarkably well, and we are well pleased with them. We think they are good and honestly made, and deserve especial notice.

HERMON PERRY,
Prin. Sacramento Seminary.

ST. JOSEPH CONVENT, SISTERS OF MERCY, Sacramento.

We are using quite a number of the MATHUSHEK PIANOS, and consider them very superior instruments. They give very great satisfaction, and we wish that all our pianos were of the same make. We have tried the principal makers, and consider the Mathushek Piano superior for fullness of tone and durability. SISTERS OF MERCY.

[A CARD.]

This is to certify that I have sold large numbers of the MATHUSHEK PIANOS for over four years, and not one has ever failed. They keep in tune and wear better than all others, and exceed the expectations of purchasers, which has led to increase the demand for them. For information, call, and do not be led by interested parties to purchase certain Pianos you would soon after desire to change for Mathushek. They took the ONLY MEDAL at the State Fair, with four competitors. I have no idea of giving up the agency, as reported by interested parties. Hundreds have been sold, and I have numerous testimonials concerning their superiority, which I will show you with pleasure; many have been published heretofore. Call and see them.

JOHN F. COOPER.

Cabinet Organs of the best makers, and also some new cheap Pianos, from $300 up; a lot of second-hand Pianos. Pianos sold on installments, if desired. Pianos to Rent. Write or call on JOHN F. COOPER, corner Sixth and I streets Sacramento. se24
